COACHING

for professionals & organizations

At Elysian, we believe that inspired talent with a clear vision for their 'dream role' leads to the most successful, long-term organizational matches!

That's why we begin our interviews by asking a crucial question:

What would you love?

Through our Professional Coaching Services and DreamBuilder programs, we guide talent to define their core values, determine their career dreams, and design a life they would love to live, aligning these elements with what success means to them professionally and personally.

Just as individuals grow from within, organizational growth stems from internal alignment. When you and your teams' communications, values, and visions are out of sync, achieving desired goals becomes a formidable task.

In Elysian's Organizational Coaching Program, we offer a structured approach and learning process aimed at fostering alignment among you and your teams. Together, we will uncover and surmount any obstacles hindering your organization's potential for growth.

Guiding you through the planning, management, and execution of transformative changes, our coaches work with you to cultivate a thriving business environment where every voice is heard, contributions are valued, and collaboration yields achievements beyond expectation!

“They really take the time to understand the true needs of every role and they always deliver!”

Associate Director, Talent Acquisition
OLIVER Agency

“I’ve worked with the founder and her team before and she’s always set high standards for herself and the candidates she and her colleagues represent. I’m 1,000% confident in the agency’s ability to provide high caliber talent.”

Associate Director, Creative Talent
Digitas

“The process was super smooth and amazing. ...Jessica clearly set the expectations around what the opportunity was, and I would say I don’t know if I would be here if it wasn’t for Elysian Staffing – a lot goes into identifying creative talent. I would absolutely recommend Elysian Staffing to other talent and clients.”

Creative Lead
TikTok

“I’ve been on random interviews in the past through other recruiters for roles that weren’t fully qualified opportunities, but Elysian started conversations for me with some of the top creative leaders in my industry. Based on this experience, I would definitely recommend Elysian Staffing to anyone looking for the right next step in their career or companies looking for top talent!”
